Fewers can be quite a bit of fun if abused in small doses. The rest of the office is off at a trade show, busy making friends and such. I'm back here in the office, hallucinating wildly and trying to write at the same time. I'll tell you what though, if a gaming company wants to make a mint, have a game on fewer visions. I'd be willing to be a technical consultant. I'm not really sure what month it is, but you, the reader, should be savouring this issue right about now. In this fine issue that you hold in your hands, are the first official codes for GoldenEye, too bad they're so lame. Also in this issue, I will blink out for no apparent reason and forget what I was writing about. God bless the mighty few!

What they truly wanted at this point was merely a brief explanation before the panel returned. But there was no one with the knowledge of such archaic machinery within the compound. There was only the gibbon who had collected shoes, and he just wouldn't be feasible in this scenario. Buy a T-shirt with a slick GameShark logo on it for a measly $12 bucks or subject yourself to your own clothes for another day. Send a check or money order for $12.00 to: InterAct Accessories, Inc. Issue #1: Maybe if you're lucky!

Issue #2: Codes for Tomb Raider, Crazy Ivan, The Horde, NBA Jam, MK3 and other games which are considered primitive to today's games.

Issue #3: Codes for Cyberiad, Resident Evil, Agila Warriors, Iron Storm, Virtua Fighter 2 and others, which are still thought of as dated, but nevertheless fun.

Issue #4: I'm not going to tell you what games are in issue #4, because I don't have to!

Issue #5: Codes for Alien Trilogy, Primal Rage, Rogaq Daad 6, Takkan 2 Virtua Fighter Kids.

Issue #6: Codes for Dark Forces, Fighting Vipers, Final Doom, Sonic 3-D Blast, NFL '97 and Twisted Metal 2.

Issue #7: Codes for Andreotti Racing, Madden '97, Soviet Strike, King of the Field 2, NK Trilogy and Rally Cross.

Issue #8: Codes for games, all right!

Issue #9: Codes for Raga Raga, Psychic Force, Tanks, Contra, Battle Stations and Andreotti Racing.

Issue #10: Nothing at all, not a single code. Except for FF VII, Porsche Challenge, Marx TT Superbike, Warcraft II and Top Gear Rally.

Our first compact code book which holds all those glorious codes from the above issues and more. Released by our dear friends at Prima Publishing, it's a mere $8.00 bucks for a ton of codes.

For back issues or code books, please send the appropriate amount ($1.00 for each back issue, or $8.00 for the code book) to: InterAct Accessories, Inc. ATTN: SNEEZING DEPT. 9611 Pulaski Park Drive, Suite #309, Baltimore, MD 21226.

I'm going to take advantage of my current fever sick state to endow some of our most interesting letters. I hope you all appreciate this, because these letters normally make my skull hurt.

Dear CodeGoy,

You guys are doing a great job with the GameShark. I finally completed Tomb Raider and Resident Evil, thanks! I was just wondering if you had any GameShark codes for the game Crinkiefest?

Later Mann

Dear Lester,

Thanks for the compliment, we try our best to get codes for every game on the market, so those games you get for Christmas should be a breeze. As for the Crinkiefest codes, they'll be coming along soon, hopefully next issue.

Dear CodeGoy,

I just recently subscribed to Dangerous Waters and am awaiting my first issue. I hope the codes in your newsletter are easier to enter than the ones I've found in the magazines. All the magazines use squares and circles and such for their codes, but there are no squares or circles available for the codes on the GameShark. I had a real hard time getting them to work. As a matter of fact, the code for Ten Pin Alley, Score Perfect Games, reads as follows: Squares, Squares, Triangle, Square, Start. I cannot find a way to input this code into the GameShark, there's just a bunch of letters and numbers. Please help me figure out your secret.

Dave Rubensky

Dear Dave,
Stay away from me, don't make me call the police, just back away slowly.

Dear CodeBoy,
Please help! I'm in desperate need of help. My friends and I play Palappa the Rapper and I need a code to rap cool. Without this code, I have no hope of ever getting past Level 1. Help me CodeBoy you're my only hope.

Crazy Williams

Dear Crazy,
These are not the codes you're looking for.

NEW

G@meSh@rk™ for
Nint@nd@ 64

We know that we've been promoting this for a long time, but your patience has now paid off! The newest addition to the GameShark family hit the shelves in August. It is even in a shiny new box! Play all of your N64 games like you never thought possible.

Price: $49.99

B@rr@cd@™ for PlayStation

This dual analog controller raises game-play to new heights! The Barracuda gives users a wider range of control than a standard digital direction pad.

The fourteen fully programmable buttons allow gamers to create and save their ideal button configurations and perform complex combination moves in all types of games. With its three modes of operation, this controller maximizes control in ANY game.

Price: $29.99

M@k@P@d 64™

This revolutionary controller gives Nintendo 64 gamers the edge they've been looking for! Don't be forced to continually change hand positions with the standard controller; the MakroPad 64 lets you reach ALL of your controls from one position. Never fumble for directional pads, sticks or fire buttons again! With a crystal clear case, auto-fire, slow motion and an extra-long cord, the MakroPad 64 is ready to attack!

Price: $24.99

T@mr@P@k™ for
Nint@nd@ 64

So, if you own a N64 you probably have been playing StarFox to death. The great thing about the game is its 4 player capability, but you only get one Rumble Pak™ when you buy the game. Have no fear, the new TrmorPak from Performance™ has both HIGH and LOW vibration feedback settings. Also, it uses less expensive AA batteries (as opposed to the Rumble Pak which uses AAA). The TrmorPak works with ALL Nintendo, InterAct and Performance branded N64 controllers.

Price: $9.99

P@r@nh@P@d™ for PlayStation

This baby's got bite! The new PiranhaPad boasts tons of upgrades over the pack-in controller. For starters...a circular digital direction pad for maximum control. Throw in a bigger, more comfortable design, larger fire buttons, contoured hand grips and an extra-long cord. And now the best part...slow motion and auto-fire! Get out your fishing poles, this Piranha should be swimming around your favorite store now.

Price: $14.99

E@cl@p@s@ P@d™ for S@ge S@turn

This state-of-the-art controller is designed to give you unparalleled performance with any Saturn title. The Eclipse Pad features eight fire buttons, arcade button layout, programmable synchro-fire, independent turbo-fire with LED display, slow motion and an extra-long cord.

Price: $22.90

V3 R@cing
W@h@el™ for PlayStation™
and Nint@nd@ 64

Conquer even the tightest hairpin turns with incredible precision and control! The V3 Racing Wheel, the premier steering wheel for both PlayStation and Nintendo 64, incorporates every enhanced feature imaginable for the serious racing enthusiast. Play in either digital or analog (Namco) mode. The V3 provides a realistic, auto-centering steering wheel with 100 degrees of rotation, adjustable tilt angle and height, steering sensitivity control and a separate acceleration/brake pedal unit. The Nintendo 64 version is even equipped with a memory card slot. Plus the V3's unique Program Relocation function allows you to customize your button layout to maximize control in any racing title. The specially designed base allows you to secure the wheel to either a table-top, or underneath your legs so you can play at a table, in a chair, or even on the floor.

Price: $69.99

Sh@rkP@d Pro 64™ for Nint@nd@ 64

Speed the competition with the SharkPad Pro 64, the most dangerous predator on the Nintendo 64 system! The new and improved design allows better access to the analog stick, giving you better control. With this new design, raised circular digital direction pad, slow motion and auto-fire functions, the SharkPad Pro 64 takes your gaming experience to a new level!

Price: $29.99

J@ySt@ck@s

Arc@de Sh@rk™ for Nint@nd@ 64

Gamers can safely prowl the dangerous waters of the most challenging Nintendo 64 games with the Arcade Shark! This vicious predator will help players devour the competition with auto-fire, slow motion and a built-in memory card slot. The uniquely versatile design features a removable joystick that can be placed in either the digital or analog control port for ultimate control in any type game. A sturdy metal base and ergonomic layout ensure hours of playing excitement.

Price: $59.99
